About

Sage East is a visual storytelling photographer and director who has gained recognition for her compelling and emotional work within the advertising and editorial spaces. Her work is equal parts timeless and innovating whilst still being full of RAW EMOTION allowing her to transport viewers to an exact moment in time.

Her ability to skillfully manipulate both color and light all contribute to the beautiful aesthetic she brings to life in all of her work. Sage has quickly emerged as an esteemed artist blending art and emotion, with an emphasis on spotlighting the stories of black men and women. She is intentional about showing representation on both sides of the camera, as well as in her nuanced STORYTELLING.
